Re: Loan Account# 0000-3001-295-912
To Whom it may concern,
I am writing to follow up with the notice and demand for full disclosure sent to you on 11/11/2024 via certified mail #9407111899561456542113 and received by you on 11/21/2024 (see proof enclosed).
As of today 2/24/2025, (over 20 days), I haven't received your response. Failure to respond within twenty (20) days of receipt is deemed a dishonor of the Notice and Demand for Full Disclosure.
This matter is being brought to your attention, Andrew Cecere, DBA President as the real party in interest under FRCP Rule 17 and California Code of Civil Procedure Section 367.
U.S.BANK, the alleged "creditor" is claiming that it had given consideration in the form of a loan or credit to Nervis Painting, LLC. However, there is no such loan registered according to Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code with the Secretary of State. All loans must be registered on a non-UCC lien with the "certificate of title" as a debt against Nervis Painting, LLC for the right to repossess or motion for a judgement in the event of default. Through discovery there is no actual lien on the loan known as 0000-3001-295-912. Furthermore, there was never a transfer of lien on a UCC 3, which is an assignment. Your domestic company is not following UCC law. Nervis Painting LLC is challenging the alleged "creditor" or third-party debt servicer to being a real party of interest for inadequate consideration of an alleged registered loan contract, which the claimant is claiming to have given lawful consideration in equity. Secondly, the alleged "creditor" or third-party debt servicer must adhere to the National Bank Act of 1863, section 33, which states:
"And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any officer acting under the provisions of this act to countersign or deliver to any such association, or to any other company or person, any circulating notes contemplated by this act, except as hereinbefore provided, and in accordance with the true intent and meaning of this act; and any officer who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding double the amount so countersigned and delivered, and imprisonment not exceeding fifteen years, at the discretion of the court in which he shall be tried."
Notice to the Principal is Notice to the Agent and Notice to the Agent is Notice to the Principal. It is FACT, in First National Bank of Montgomery - Defendant v. Jerome Daly - Plaintiff (IN JUSTICE COURT, TOWNSHIP OF CREDIT RIVER, MARTIN V. MAHONEY, JUSTICE),
"Mr. Morgan (Defendant) admitted that all of the money or credit which was used as a consideration was created upon their books, that this was standard banking practice exercised by their bank in combination with the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis, another private Bank, further the he knew of no United States Statute or Law that gave the Plaintiff the authority to do this. Plaintiff further claimed that the Defendant by using the ledger book created credit and by paying on the Note and Mortgage waived any right to complain about the Consideration and that Defendant was estopped from doing so."
Nervis Painting, LLC offers you an opportunity to cure (prove your claim of valuable consideration) under the rules of the National Bank Act, Title 12 U.S. Code § 411 and Title 31 U.S. Code § 3113. Please provide the three points following:
1. An authenticated true certified copy under penalty of perjury of the installment sales contract initiating the negotiable instrument that "does not" have any countersignature from any president or any of his officers, agents, affiliates within the association.
2. Provide the claimants proper place of business to receive any check(s) or draft(s) as tender accord and satisfaction via restrictive endorsement from whom a claim is asserted, not less than fifteen (15) days or not more than ninety (90) days from the date of receipt of this notice; for any amount not greater than amount to satisfy the claimant. Should no response come from your attention, it shall constitute full agreement that any tender in full satisfaction via restrictive endorsement be received and applied to the books by any public office associated with your business name or trade name; the alleged obligation is satisfied. Should no repayment be received from your association it shall also constitute full agreement of full satisfaction under the rules of California Commercial Code Section 3311.
If you do not have it, I am giving you the opportunity to cure by accord and satisfaction. Please provide me the address where I can send the payment.
Failure to respond within twenty (20) days of receipt will be deemed a dishonor of this Bona Fide Dispute.
Sincerely,
Nervis Painting, LLC
